New Member Requirements:

- Players with an established USGA handicap that converts to a 40 or less course handicap on the 18-Hole Gold Course at Hyland Hills may join the Association once they have completed an application and paid the dues and initiation fee.
- New members who have a previous knowledge of golf, but do not have a USGA handicap, may establish a temporary 18-hole handicap by submitting (to the Handicap Chairperson) - scorecards for a total of 54 holes (any combination of 9-hole or 18-hole rounds - signed, dated, and attested - from any USGA rated golf course. These rounds must have been played within the previous twelve (12) months. One (1) of these rounds must be played on the Hyland Hills 18-Hole Gold Course with a current member of the Association. A Handicap Index will be calculated from these rounds. If it converts to a 40 or less course handicap, the new member will be accepted. If not accepted, the dues and initiation fee will be refunded.
